Appeal

Our Parish Goal for 2024 -2025

$ 23,759

The Diocesan Appeal supports all of the vital ministries and programs throughout the Diocese of Albany. It is our one time opportunity during the year to reach out in support of all the people of God beyond the boundaries of Sacred Heart and St. Philip Neri Mission Parish. Donations directly help our parish to pay its share of the important work of the Diocese. Please respond to the Appeal by making a pledge that you can pay to the end of June 2025.

So far we have reached 65% of our goal totaling $15,377.00

Our Goal is 100% participation
Not for equal gifts, but equal sacrifice!

An overwhelmingly, splendid success! Thank you to the Midland Quilters of Michigan and all who gave of their time, talent, and treasure ($494.00)!

St. Justin Martyr

Feastday: June 1

Birth: 100

Death: 165

Among the Fathers of the second century his life is the best known, and from the most authentic documents. In both "Apologies" and in his "Dialogue" he gives many personal details, e.g. about his studies in philosophy and his conversion; they are not, however, an autobiography, but are partly idealized, and it is necessary to distinguish in them between poetry and truth; they furnish us however with several precious and reliable clues. For his martyrdom we have documents of undisputed authority. God. Justin's teaching concerning God has been very diversely interpreted, some seeing in it nothing but a philosophic speculation, others a truly Christian faith. In reality it is possible to find in it these two tendencies: on one side the influence of philosophy betrays itself in his concept of the Divine transcendency, thus God is immovable; He is above the heaven, can neither be seen nor enclosed within space; He is called Father, in a philosophic and Platonistic sense, inasmuch as He is the Creator of the world. On the other hand we see the God of the Bible in his all-powerful, and merciful God, and merciful God; if He ordained the Sabbath it was not that He had need of the homage of the Jews, but that He desired to attach them to Himself; through His mercy He preserved among them a seed of salvation; through His Divine Providence He has rendered the nations worthy of their inheritance; He delays the end of the world on account of the Christians. And the great duty of man is to love Him.
